

SCHOLASTIC

Parent & child[®]

THE JOY OF FAMILY LIVING AND LEARNING™

Hug Dad

for Valentine's Day!

PAGE 40

Is your child ready for a sleepover?

PAGE 72

SAVVY MOMS 2010
OUR SMART GUIDE JUST FOR YOU

WE'VE GOT A new LOOK!

Julianne Moore

This mom wants to put a book into the hands of every kid in America

Choose Right. Choose Bagel Bites.

mybagelbites.com

ADVERTISEMENT

Instant style

Classy Christy

Jordan Christy, author of How to Be a Hepburn in a Hilton World, shares advice on how she learned to dress comfortably with a dash of pizzazz—after becoming a mom.

1 Change your mindset. Being a mom doesn't mean you have to dress in a matronly way. When you go shopping, keep in mind how beautiful you are, and dress the part.

2 Accent with accessories. If you wear jeans and a tee every day, find a cute and comfy pair of heels, a funky watch, or a few fun rings to jazz things up.

3 Toss the frumpy stuff. It can be tempting to live in sweats when you're up to your ears in diapers, but they tend to add 10 pounds—and 10 years—to your look.

4 Emulate classy celebs. Think Reese Witherspoon, not Paris Hilton. Reese always looks adorable and never shows too much skin. See what I mean on Google Images.

5 Start with a great skirt. Dress it down with a cute tee or up with heels, a button-down shirt, and a fitted blazer.

MAR. 2

Read 1001 Little Ways to Spend Less & Look Beautiful—new today. Get more fashion dates at www.Scholastic.com/savvymom.

Hollywood Secret

Feature film makeup artist and mom Kimara Ahnert uses these budget beauty items on the stars:

Aveeno Body Moisturizer Calms skin after waxing.

Burt's Bees Lip Balm Moisturizing base under lipstick; adds sheerness over lipstick.

Q-Tips Apply mascara and remove eye makeup.

Unscented baby wipes Remove makeup and clean makeup brushes.

CLOCKWISE FROM TOP RIGHT: STYLING BY MARK KLING; PHOTO BY SARAH BAIRD; COURTESY OF MACY'S BOOK GROUP

www.Scholastic.com/savvymom TAKE OUR QUIZ to discover your personal style! Then find a personalized fashion suggestion from Clinton Kelly, co-host of TLC's What Not to Wear.